- How did you learn of this vacancy?: Online
- Business and civic experience:: I am a Certified Flight Instructor (instrument & commercial) by trade, which I suspended in 2001 to stay home and take care of my small children, now 12 and 8. When my youngest started school, I taught myself futures trading, which I now do at home. My family moved from the San Francisco Bay Area in CA to Charlotte (Dilworth) in April 2012. I have always been active in my children's schools, attended local government functions in my hometown in CA, and hosted a fundraiser for our mayor's (successful) reelection campaign. I would like to expand my civic experience by participating on an advisory board here in Charlotte, which will also allow me to become more involved in my new City.
- Areas of expertise and interests/skills:: As my main goal is community involvement, I would be pleased to serve on whatever board could most benefit from my participation. I am perhaps best suited in the areas of transportation (given my flying background) and finance (given my trading practice and role as my family's CFO). Having lived in the Bay Area for 40 years, I may also be able to provide unique perspectives.
