

CCBAC Member Profiles

Cynthia P. Bush, CFA

Mrs. Bush is a Managing Director with TIAA-CREF. She is responsible for over $1.5 Billion in fixed income investments in the automotive, aerospace/defense, and metals/mining industries. She has been with TIAA-CREF for over a decade and prior to that worked with JP Morgan Chase in New York and Citibank in Europe. Mrs. Bush is the Chairman of the Board of Children's Theatre of Charlotte, Chairman of the Citizen's Capital Budget Advisory Committee, and a board member of Lake Norman Charter. She holds the Chartered Financial Analyst ("CFA") designation and is a member of the CFA North Carolina Society. Mrs. Bush graduated magna cum laude from Howard University in Washington, DC with a BBA in Finance and earned her MBA from Columbia University in New York, NY. Previously, she was president of alumni chapters of both her undergraduate and graduate educational institutions. Mrs. Bush also supports a variety of other cultural, civic, and educational organizations. She is married with two children.

Eric Sieckmann

Eric G. Sieckmann is a generation Portfolio and Market Analytics with Duke Energy Company. His primary responsibilities include modeling regulated fleet operations in Florida for commodities position determination (coal, gas, power, and emissions), budgeting, ratemaking, and scenario analysis; ad-hoc analyses around hedging, rate impacts, unit retirements, option pricing, etc. Earlier in his career, Eric worked for Lockheed Martin Aeronautics at their Palmdale, CA and Fort Worth, TX locations, as a composites and adhesives engineer.

Eric is a graduate of the MMM program at Northwestern University, having earned both an MBA from the Kellogg School of Management and a Masters of Engineering Management (MEM) from the McCormick School of Engineering. Originally from St. Louis, Missouri, Eric holds a Bachelors of Science in Materials Science and Engineering from Auburn University. He enjoys spending time with family, music, socializing, reading, and traveling. In total, he has explored 47 states and 29 countries through Europe, North America, South America, Africa and Asia.

Richard D. Kingsberry

Mr. Kingsberry retired from the United States Army, Lieutenant Colonel, in 2004 after completing over 31 years of service. Primary Military Occupation Specialty, Army Engineer Officer. Last Military Assignment was Professor of Military Science (In Charge of the Army ROTC Program) at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte from 2000-2004. He previously served on the City of Charlotte Insurance Risk Management Committee. Served on the Mecklenburg County Juvenile Crime Prevention Council and twice elected as Chairperson. Employed since 2005, with Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools, with current assignment as a Transportation Specialist. Richard earned a BS Degree in History and Political Science from Fayetteville State University and a Masters in Public Administration from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Rachel V. Martin

Rachel V. Martin is a graduate from the University of Scranton, Scranton, PA with a BS in Human Resource and MS in Human Resource Administration. She is currently a full-time student at Walden University working on her Doctoral of Business Administration (D.B.A) with a concentration in Social Impact.

Rachel has over 10 years of experience in the compliance (policy and procedure) field. Her last position was a Quality Manager/Staff Training Director. She is a newcomer to the Charlotte, NC area and has already involved herself with community service. While in Scranton, PA, she received various honors and awards for both her academic and community service.

Dr. Sue Peck

Dr. Peck completed her doctorate from N.C. State University in Adult and Community College Education with a minor in Public Administration. Her master was attained at the University of Georgia and her undergraduate from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She has taught high school, worked for the NC Cooperative Extension Service, and spent most of her professional life in teacher education at Winthrop University in Rock Hill, SC. While at Winthrop, she held several administrative posts from Assistant Dean of the College of Education to Director of Student Academic Services to Department Chair. She was a member of the original School Bond Oversight Committee for the CMS system and has recently completed two terms (8 years) as a Trustee of Central Piedmont Community College. She is married to Roy Alexander and they have six, almost seven, grandchildren.

DAVID E. TIBBALS

Mr. Tibbals graduated with a Bachelors of Landscape Architecture from the University of Georgia in 1992 and is a licensed North Carolina Real Estate Broker. Since February, 2013, Mr. Tibbals has served as land manager with a small private builder and manages personal ventures of his own. He was initially recruited into real estate in 2004 with a publicly traded national homebuilder as Director of Land. His work experience has included market analysis, land development budgeting, initial review and final pro-forma creation, and asset management. In late 2007, he ventured out on his own to serve as an independent agent. Since then, he has contracted over $20 million in assets with private developers, banks, local and national homebuilders.

He is married and father of three sons; Elder, Sharon Presbyterian; scout leader; baseball coach.