

Mecklenburg County

North Carolina

Proclamation

WHEREAS, gun violence is a major public health issue in the United States, encompassing suicides, homicides, domestic violence, mass shootings, and unintentional injuries, many of which are preventable through safe firearm storage and responsible ownership; and

WHEREAS, the financial impact of gun violence in Mecklenburg County is significant, with each fatal shooting costing approximately $1.83 million and each nonfatal shooting $425,386, according to the 2025 Office of Violence Prevention and National Institute for Criminal Justice Reform report; and

WHEREAS, Black and African American residents in Mecklenburg County are disproportionately affected by gun violence, representing 81% of homicide victims while comprising only 32.8% of the population; and

WHEREAS, firearms are involved in 87.6% of homicides in the county, highlighting the central role guns play in local violence; and

WHEREAS, in 2024, Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police reported 111 homicides and seized 3,404 firearms marking a 5% increase in illegal gun seizures and noted a 22% rise in shootings involving juvenile suspects; and

WHEREAS, June is recognized as National Gun Violence Awareness Month, during which residents are encouraged to wear orange in honor of victims and survivors, and to raise awareness about the urgent need for prevention; and

WHEREAS, the Mecklenburg Board of County Commissioners reaffirms its commitment to reducing gun violence and supporting efforts that promote safety, health, and justice for all county residents; and

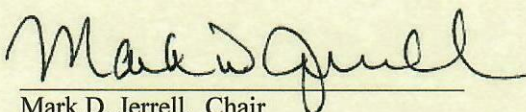

WHEREAS, progress is being made through coordinated efforts resulting in a 17% decrease in violent crime in the first quarter of 2025 compared to the same period in 2024, according to the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department, demonstrating the positive impact of prevention and intervention programs.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mecklenburg County Board of Commissioners, in observance of National Gun Violence Awareness Month, hereby proclaims June 2025 as in Mecklenburg County and commend its observance to all citizens.

This the 3rd day of June 2025

Mark D. Jerrell, Chair
Mecklenburg Board of County Commissioners
