Sarah, I am going to have to resign from the council. It is getting increasingly difficult for me to leave work to get to the meetings on time. Can you please tell me what is required to make the resignation official?

- Business and civic experience:: I am the owner of Moore Professional Counseling Services serving the Charlotte, Greensboro and Fayetteville areas. This private practice was established in 2006 and serves individuals/families challenged with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder symptoms, domestic violence exposure, legal issues and homelessness/financial constraints. I am a Licensed Professional Counselor for the State of North Carolina and a Nationally Certified Counselor.
- Areas of expertise and interests/skills:: As a culturally competent therapist and helping professional, I understand the importance of "meeting individuals where they are socially and emotionally" while providing ethnically and linguistically effective treatment as they grow socially, mentally, emotionally, etc. I specialize in working with youth who have issues with the Juvenile Justice System and problems managing anger. I am the former Social Worker for the Guilford County Juvenile Detention Center in Greensboro, NC and believe that past experience in secure custody has been of great benefit to my practice. I also work well with adult women suffering from depressive symptoms. I support the use of Community Forums to educate others on Mental Health and Substance Abuse issues. Finally, I am interested in serving as a JCPC board member to assist with brainstorming new ways to minimize disparities in the Mental Health Care system which greatly affects the likelihood of participation in the Juvenile Justice System.
