2011 Pretrial Services Eligibility Policy

Mecklenburg County Criminal Justice Services 2015 Pretrial Services Eligibility Policy

I. Program Eligibility

- A. General
 - The defendant must voluntarily agree to participate in Pretrial Services.
 - The defendant must be recommended for supervision by a judicial officer and meet the program's eligibility requirements.
 - The defendant must be 16 years old or older.
 - The defendant must be legally residing in the U.S. (e.g., U.S. citizen, permanent resident).
 - The defendant must not be a registered sex offender.
 - The defendant must not have any warrants or detainers.
 - The defendant must not have an unsecured or cash bond.
 - The defendant must not be released through a bail agent.
- B. Residential
 - The defendant must reside in the State of North Carolina. If a defendant is not a resident of Mecklenburg County or a bedroom community (Union, Cabarrus, Iredell, Gaston, or Lincoln Counties), then courtesy supervision must be arranged for standard or intensive level cases. Courtesy supervision is not required for administrative level cases.
 - If the defendant lives with the prosecuting witness (PW), the witness must approve that the defendant can return to the residence.
 - If the victim is a child and resides with defendant, DSS caseworker must approve release if, and only if, there is a victim protection plan already in effect.

C. Automatic Exclusions

- The defendant refused to be interviewed by Pretrial Services.
- The defendant must not be charged with an excluded offense (see Appendix A).
- The defendant has more than three prior arrests dates with pending cases (Note: not counting new arrest: must have different offense dates).
- The defendant's community corrections officer, post release officer, or federal probation _ officer does not consent to Pretrial Services supervision when the new arrest is for a felony offense.
- The defendant is "high risk" based on the objective risk assessment tool utilized by Pretrial Services.
- The victim is hospitalized as a result of the offense and their medical status is unknown, critical, or serious.

Commented [ETA1]: The Court may order a defendant to comply with pretrial release conditions

Commented [ETA2]: A defendant may only be placed on supervision by a judicial officer when eligible for the program.

Commented [ETA3]: Addressed in Section C, below.

Commented [ETA4]: Pretrial Services will not be responsible for supervising defendants released by a bail agent.

Commented [ETA5]: Interviews are no longer by Pretrial Services, however defendants must provide valid information prior to release in order to be eligible for the program.

Commented [ETA6]: Redundant with Part II, below.

Commented [ETA7]: The program is adopting an objective risk-based approach supported by research.

Commented [ETA8]: The program is adopting an objective risk-based approach supported by research.

Commented [ETA9]: Release decision is based primarily on defendants' risk level; high risk are ineligible for supervision by Pretrial Services.

- The defendant has an active case under Pretrial Services and is delinquent in compliance with release conditions.
- The defendant refuses to abide by the terms of the Pretrial Services supervision contract or judicial conditions of release.
- The defendant is a registered sex offender and their new offense is related to their status as a sex offender.
- The defendant cannot provide two references, complete with name and contact information.
- The defendant is a threat to community safety or self. (Note: reason must be _ _ _ _ documented.)
- The defendant does not have a co-signer available when under the age of 18, charged with Driving under the Influence, or is obviously physically or mentally impaired. (Note: co-signer must meet program eligibility requirements.)
- II. Eligible Ineligible Offenses
 - The following charges are ineligible for supervision by Pretrial Services:
 - A. General

Traffic, misdemeanor, and non-violent felony offenses are eligible for Pretrial Services supervision unless the offense is excluded. Excluded offenses, which include violent felonies, are listed in Appendix A.
