BY JAY EDWARDS
Correspondent

Cannon School's Pat Whisnant and Forestview's Dan Ghent led their golf teams to repeat state championships. They share the Observer boys' coach of the year honors.

Cannon sophomore Michael Sanders is the Observer's boys' golfer of the year. Sanders, who is committed to play golf at Louisiana State, won the NCISAA individual state championship by five shots. He backed up a 4-under 67 on the first day of the championship with a 2-under 69 to finish 6 under overall.

Community School of Davidson junior Patten Williams also won the 1A public school state championship by six shots.

This is the second straight year Sanders' coach Whisnant and Forestview's Ghent have shared coach of the year honors.

Whisnant led his Cougars' team to its second straight, NCISAA 3A state title, winning by 21 strokes after taking the CISAA conference crown by eight shots. Cannon had no seniors and should be favored again in 2017.

Ghent led Forestview to its fifth consecutive N.C. 3A title. The Jaguars won by 14 shots after capturing the 3A West Regional by 11 strokes and the Big South conference title by 353 shots.

Sharks extend series with 4-2 victory

PITTSBURGH

Martin Jones stopped 44 shots, Logan Couture had a goal and two assists and the San Jose Sharks avoided elimination by hanging on for a 4-2 win over the Pittsburgh Penguins in Game 5 of the Stanley Cup Final on Thursday night.

Melker Karlsson, Brent Burns and captain Joe Pavelski, into an empty net, also scored for the Sharks, who cut the Penguins' series lead to 3-2 and forced Game 6 at San Jose on Sunday.

Evgeni Malkin and Carl Hagelin scored 26 seconds apart in the first period of a game the Penguins outshot the Sharks 46-21.

Aside from Pavelski's goal, the rest of the scoring came in the first period, and included the teams combining to score two each in the first 5:06 to set a Cup final series record for fastest four goals to start a game.

The Sharks squandered a 2-0 lead before Karlsson scored the go-ahead goal with 5:15 left in the first. Karlsson snapped a shot that banked in off the bottom of goalie Matt Murray's glove.
