CHARLOTTE-MECKLENBURG COMMUNITY RELATIONS COMMITTEE

Number of BOCC Members: 21

Term Length in Years: 3

Purpose

The Community Relations Committee (CRC) serves to prevent discrimination because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, family status or disability; to ameliorate the effects of past discrimination, and to promote harmony among citizens of Charlotte and Meck Co. The CRC serves to study programs in the area of human and community relations and to make the results available to the public and to promote the quality of opportunity for all citizens. The volunteers who comprise members of the CRC are an integral part of the human relations support system for Charlotte and Meck Co. CRC members pursue activities that ensure fair housing practices and access to public accommodations; assist in settling dispute and group conflicts; improve race, ethnic and community relations; prevent discrimination; and improve communication among various community groups and individuals. CRC's diverse membership is divided into six subcommittees: Programs, Communications, Education/Young Leaders, Police-Community Relations, Intercultural Relations and Crisis Response. The subcommittee chairs along with the CRC chairperson and vice-chairperson, form the CRC Leadership Committee. Recommendations for action or advocacy are made by subcommittee chairs through their participation in the CRC Leadership Committee. Appointees must take an oath of office and are subject to the City's Attendance and Anti-Harassment Policies and Code of Ethics, Gift Policy and members of boards.

- Business and civic experience: I have 13 years of professional experience in social work. As QA/QI Director, I lead our quality management department, accreditation team, develop and revise policies and procedures among other things. In my role, I track trends and patterns and identify areas of improvement and development based on data. I have the ability to be creative, lead positive change, and be impactful in the lives of direct support professional staff, clinical employees, and most importantly- the people and families that receive services through our agency. Integrative Health Coaching is my newest career venture. In this new role, I have the ability to practice being fully present with my clients and using my natural and trained listening skills to help people voice their vision for optimal health. Together with my clients, we brainstorm creative ideas to overcome the barriers they face and help keep them accountable for the goals they create for themselves in their area of focus. I'm a Volunteer Class Captain for Circle de Luz. Circle de Luz is a non- profit organization that empowers young Latinas by supporting their transformation through extensive mentoring, holistic programming and scholarship funds for further education. Class Captains make a 6-year commitment to mentor a group of young ladies from 7th through 12th grade. My class (class of 2021) of 7 girls are in the 10th grade this year. I look forward to their continued growth and still being a part of their lives well past their high school graduation in 2021. As a Writer/Speaker/Author, I'm honored when readers email me or approach me to tell me how they connect to my writing. I am deeply humbled to hear their stories. I will never take that for granted.

- Areas of expertise and interests/skills: My passion is in providing positive experiences and promoting inclusion to community members. I believe in embracing people and participating in my community. Volunteer work, shopping local, supporting small businesses, sharing resources, attending community events, and being a community advocate are all ways I contribute to my community today. There's something so good about being a small part of a big circle that is fulfilling. In my role as QA/QI Director, I've lead DDR, Inc. through accreditation, receiving the highest standards, lead our agency through several Managed Care Organization reviews receiving the highest standards, and lead our agency through cultural competence reviews receiving the highest standards. I was one of three writers of the Mecklenburg Cultural Competence Provider Plan for Cardinal Innovation Healthcare. Developed and monitor DDR's cultural competence plan, Initiated and lead DDR's Culture Club, Launched "Stories Matter" Speakers Series, Completed the Advancing Strong Leadership in Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities Program through University of Delaware, Chaired Mecklenburg Cultural Competence Provider Council, Chaired Sandhills Center Global Continuous Quality Improvement Committee, and Lead various committees and subcommittees. I would be honored to serve my community on an advisory board level.
