- How did you learn of this vacancy? Other -- Post on Atrium Health's Young Professional Social Media Page
- If you selected Other, please explain:
- Business and civic experience: I currently work for Atrium Health as a Senior Program Associate within their Behavioral Health department. I support senior leadership through extensive program evaluation and monitoring, employee engagement efforts and various special projects. Previously, I worked for a public health department in Cabarrus County. I worked on two large grant projects, one focusing specifically on youth violence prevention (I served as the Program Manager and oversaw trauma-informed efforts within the schools and community groups) and diabetes prevention (I worked as a lifestyle change coach and managed the budget and evaluation components). My most recent role with them was as the Program Manager for the community dental program, which served primarily low-income families to ensure high quality care and improved access to health services. Previous internships and volunteer roles focused on interpersonal and sexual violence prevention, improving school health and overall program design, implementation and evaluation.
- Areas of expertise and interests/skills: I am extremely organized, detail-oriented and committed to completing whatever task is at hand to the best of my ability. I have had the honor of working with communities of various backgrounds, including race, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, religious and legal status. I've worked extensively in building and sustaining community collaborations with a constant focus on improving community health and wellbeing (physical, social and emotional). Personal interests include cooking, exercising, traveling, reading and spending time with my husband and our animals. We recently bought a home in Charlotte, after renting for several years, and I am hoping to become more involved with the city I love and plan to call home for years to come.

- How did you learn of this vacancy? Other -- I've been a member of the Bank of America Domestic Violence Work Force and heard through them about the Mecklenburg County Domestic Violence Activity.
- If you selected Other, please explain:
- Business and civic experience: For the past 2 years I have been engaged with Bank of America's Domestic Violence Task Force. Sharing my story to provide hope to those who are experiencing Domestic Violence. I participate in a non-profit organization - Proverbs226, mentoring children of incarcerated parents, participating with the Digital Science Data Center Program, mentoring 16 - 24 year old, providing career and professional soft skills needed in Corporate America. I also participate in visits to various prisons, mentoring wives of inmates while their children spend a day with their fathers.
- Areas of expertise and interests/skills: I am Domestic Violence Survivor and also a Survivor of a child who committed suicide last year, 11/3/17. When I shared my story with Bank of America during a Domestic Violence Event, I was asked by a participant, how was my son doing today. My Domestic Violence experience occurred 35 years ago.) I replied that he was still experiencing a lot of anger, not realizing that some of that anger was directed to his father and how he beat his mother. This anger brought about issues throughout Jason's life in which caused him to commit suicide a year ago. I realized that there are issues which are not apparent, which caused my son to reach the state of suicide. We need to recognize those issues and help others, which is why I'm so determined to speaking out and empowering others to seek help. Encouraging others that seeking assistance is not a sign of weakness. I've worked for Bank of America for over 21 years and have conducted Lunch and Learns to empower men and women to improve their professional soft skills and share my wisdom of successes and failures as I matured in my career.
