- How did you learn of this vacancy? Other
- If you selected Other, please explain:
- Business and civic experience: I moved to North Carolina from Los Angeles, CA and I have worked in the non-profit industry for over 20 years and have served my community since I was 18 years old. I have worked extensively with the at-risk and homeless youth and young adult population. I also have created a social enterprise through an existing business to employ at-risk young adults.
- Areas of expertise and interests/skills: The population that I have worked with over the last 20 years is that of the Transition Age Youth (TAY) population, which includes the ages of 14-24. I am particularly interested in building community relations in an effort to help remove existing barriers so that the TAY population can become productive citizens. Additionally, I am a community builder and a strong believer of building collaborations in an effort to help bring different members of society together to address issues that may persist. I have worked with police departments in an effort to help address any issues that may exist between the community and law enforcement. I also have been a strong advocate to help the TAY population in relation to issues surrounding juvenile and young adult justice.
